Two Are Set Next Week

The community toy stack, which has been growing in size only slowly this year and in not too good a quality, is expected to be boosted considerably on Dec. 14 and 15 when shows will be presented at which admission will be a new toy.

The first show will be at the Redwood Theater at 3:45 p.m. Manager Al Ackerman said today that the feature picture to be shown will be Bing Crosby in "Rhythm on the Range." In addition, short subjects, including cartoons, will be presented. All youngsters of the city are invited to this show, which will be on Wednesday of next week.

The following day at Sequoia High School at 1:30 p.m., the swing band music of Ernest Massey and the questions of "Professor Quizzical" will be the feature of an interesting program, which will include tap dancing and appearance of Santa Claus.

A radio broadcast will be the theme around which the program will be developed. Included on the program will be the Grant twins, Helen and Caroline, in a musical duet; Billy Harms in a tap dance, and others.

"Professor Quizzical" will interview students on the stage.

In charge of the presentation is Joan Lynn, editor of the Sequoia Times, which is sponsoring this year's toystack along with the Tribune, the Redwood City Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Red Cross.

Those attending are urged to bring gifts particularly for children from 11 to 15 years of age, as there is usually a shortage of this type.

Persons having slightly used toys which they are willing to contribute to the toystack may leave them either at the high school or the Tribune office, 30 California St., or may telephone the Tribune and they will be called for. Cash contributions, first of which—$1—was made today, will be used to purchase toys for age groups not provided for in the gifts.

HELP SELL CHRISTMAS SEALS

Pretty Betty Romaine is displaying one of Wards shopping calendars, which feature the National Tuberculosis Association's Christmas Seal. Mounted at strategic points throughout the store, they remind shoppers not only to buy seals, but also tell them how many days are left for purchasing gifts. Price tags featuring the Christmas seal are another effort on the part of Montgomery Wards to help this cause.

Realty Sign Ban Pondered

Good news for Redwood City's clean up advocates was given at the city council meeting Monday night.

It was reported that two of the city's most unsightly structures were being razed. They are two barns, one on Middlefield Rd. and one on Stambaugh St., removal of both of which had been recommended by the citizens' "Clean Up During 1938" committee. An unoccupied house at 221 Pennsylvania Ave. also is to be razed, it was reported.

CLEAN UP DURING 1938

In addition, the council authorized City Attorney Mansfield to take steps to insure razing of the house on the southwest corner of El Camino Real and Harrison Ave. which had been criticized by the council. Final authority for the attorney to have the house torn down is to be given at the next meeting of the council.

Another action was the decision of the council to invite before the council Dec. 19 the two realty dealers who assertedly are opposed to the banning of real estate signs from the city, to hear why they object to the elimination of the signs.

This action was taken on suggestion of Councilman Robert N. Jones, who commended last night's Tribune editorial pointing out that such signs are being eliminated elsewhere and suggesting that the city ban them by law if the realtors are unable to agree upon their elimination by a "gentlemen's agreement," which all but the two reportedly have signed.

"I think the Tribune is right," Councilman Jones declared. "If the real estate dealers are not going to do something about it, I think we should."

Steps to speed up the process of abating unsightly buildings were also taken by the council after it had heard one of its members, Councilman McCarthy, roundly score Building Inspector Drathman for failing to make an inspection of a building at the corner of Bradford St. and Middlefield Rd. as he had been directed at the previous meeting.

McCarthy suggested that Drathman, who explained that the council's order had "slipped my mind," make written notations in the future of such tasks, and that he, without waiting for council direction, prepare or ask the city attorney to prepare papers necessary for abatement of such properties where he is unable to secure action from the owner. McCarthy's suggestions met approval of other councilmen in informal expressions of opinion.

Commencing tonight, and closing tomorrow night will be Ignace Jan Paderewski's first and only picture, "Moonlight Sonata." Fredric March and Virginia Bruce in "There Goes My Heart" will also be shown on this program.

Costly Section Covers 8 Miles

Bulldozers, "cats," and carryalls are biting into the rugged terrain over which the third construction unit of the Ocean Shore Hwy. will pass as N. M. Ball Sons of Berkeley started in earnest the work on their $232,767 contract.

The new section covers 8.1 miles from Davenport to Waddell Creek bridge near the Theodore Hoover ranch. It skirts precipitous Gianone Hill, bugaboo to motorists, and will skirt the ocean cliffs to cut 2.3 miles from the old route.

Henry Simard, resident engineer, estimates that it will require about a year to complete the job. A crew of 50 now at work on clearing operations will be increased to 125 within a few weeks.

The new route will parallel the old route closer to the ocean, eliminating the tortuous Gianone Hill grade. Because of the rugged topography of the country a number of heavy cuts and fills will be made. There will be two double-span culverts along the 8-mile route, 192 and 140 feet long, respectively. One concrete bridge with a 162-foot span will carry traffic over Scotts Creek along the beach.

The completed road will have a 22-foot black top surface.

Forest fires in unprotected areas of the U. S. averaged 104,816 per year from 1933-37, and did an estimated annual damage of $33,613,000.

Rogers Writes New Comedy

Harold Rogers, son of Mrs. H. C. Rogers of 144 King St., Redwood City, will have his second musical comedy produced at the College of the Pacific in Stockton on March 22.

Rogers, who was a graduate of Sequoia High School in 1934, is now completing an operetta called "Hi Spirits." Last year he wrote and produced, with the aid of DeMarcus Brown, director of the Little Theater, "Sweet Suite."

Sequoia Players' annual Christmas play will be "No Christmas For Horace," a one-act comedy by Perry Boyer Corneau, and will be given a school performance on Dec. 20.

Peter Rodgers will play the title role of Horace. Other members of the cast are Shirley Steele, Helen Gray, Helen Grant, Ellen Spohr, Rosemarie Bonout and Dale Wood. Howard Melton is the student director.

Tom Badley, San Mateo County YMCA chairman, presented the charter to the recently organized Sequoia High School Junior Hi-Y Club, following initiation ceremonies of the club last week. Six members of the club were initiated by the Senior Hi-Y Club. President of the new organization is Sophomore Kenneth Bebb.

Fifty Christmas baskets will be distributed by the club on Dec. 24.

Raymond Alvis, Painter, Takes Own Life Here

Raymond George (Babe) Alvis, 32-year-old house painter, took his life Saturday night, apparently despondent over family difficulties. His wife, Grayce, won an interlocutory decree of divorce Apr. 6. According to Dep. Sheriff F. Thomas Maloney, who investigated the case, Alvis had threatened suicide last July.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. White of San Carlos were riding on Canyon Rd. near Redwood City shortly after 10 p.m. Sunday when they saw Alvis' parked machine and his prostrate form near it. It was about a half mile from the stone gates at the Canada Rd. intersection.

The Whites notified the sheriff's office. Maloney found a .32-.25 calibre Winchester rifle at Alvis' side. The painter apparently had placed the muzzle of the heavy deer gun in his mouth and pulled the trigger, Maloney said. The hollow-point, copper-jacketted slug blew off a portion of the top of the head.

Alvis lived at 756 Clinton St. His mother was Mrs. Josephine Dearborn, wife of the late Edward Dearborn, former city councilman and street superintendent. His father was the late George Alvis, also known as George White, teamster and rancher. The deceased's brother, George, formerly operated a lunch stand at Skyline Blvd. and Half Moon Bay Rd.

So far as could be learned, Alvis left no notes. Maloney said it was a plain case of suicide; that in addition to his family difficulties, Alvis was suffering from partial deafness.

Fines Assessed On Bookmakers As Plea Changed

John Fischer, Joseph Fischer and Fred Welte, arrested Mar. 15 at Millbrae on felony bookmaking charges, Monday changed their pleas to guilty in Judge Maxwell McNutt's court and waived time for sentence. Judge McNutt fined them $250 each with the alternative of spending one day in jail for each $2 of the fine. They paid the fines.

Judge McNutt sentenced each of the trio to 30 days in the county jail, but suspended the sentence.

According to Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis, a special charge against John Fischer for leasing premises for the purpose of bookmaking will be dismissed.

In another felony bookmaking case which originated the same day nine months ago, James Caldwell, Manuel Catania and Wallace McLeod, all of Belmont, pleaded guilty in Judge A. R. Cotton's court Thursday.

They were fined $250 each and sentenced to 30 days in jail on one count, and to another 30 days in jail on a second count, when they appeared for sentence Monday afternoon. Both jail sentences were suspended.

Captain Cassell Wins Honors for Shooting

Capt. E. F. Cassell of the State Highway Patrol has returned to his post wearing a new medal in recognition of his ability as a marksman. Shooting in revolver competition against 186 other members of the patrol, Captain Cassell placed 12th with a score of 267. The winner was Patrolman Edwin Hansen of San Joaquin County with a score of 285.

The competition was held in conjunction with the State Highway Patrolman's convention in Sacramento. The next convention will be held in Santa Cruz, the captain said.

Speedy Japanese Is Sent To Jail

Frank H. Mori, 27-year-old San Francisco Japanese who was tagged twice one night for speeding by the State Highway Patrol, was sentenced to five days in the county jail by Judge Edward I. McAuliffe. Mori's driving license was suspended for 60 days.

Mori was first arrested by Patrolman C. L. Eagan for speeding. After signing the tag, Mori drove off at high speed and was overtaken at the Sunnyvale air base where he signed another citation.

Among other week-end traffic patrol victims were Fritz Wendt of Burlingame, fined $20 for speeding 75 miles an hour, and Nick Terkelsen, Salinas, who paid $15 for speeding 70 miles an hour.

Five dollar fines were paid by E. J. Doherty and L. W. Shaw of San Francisco, Edwin L. Andrews of Palo Alto, Bedlia L. Miller of Burlingame, and Marvis M. Gambs of Rio Del Mar.

Two-dollar-fifty-cent fines were paid by John C. O'Leary of Menlo Park and David B. Pressler of San Jose.

Youths Face Trial Over Stolen Machine

PALO ALTO, Dec. 7—Two CCC boys, Douglas Fearon of North Fair Oaks and Robert Schueller of Santa Cruz, accused of stealing an automobile here, were held to answer to superior court yesterday afternoon following a hearing before Police Judge John E. Springer. In lieu of $500 cash bail each, they were taken to the county jail at San Jose.

COMMITTEES NAMED TO HANDLE COMMUNITY DINNER ARRANGEMENTS

Appointment of committees for the annual community dinner, to be held Jan. 11 in Sequoia High School Cafeteria, was the principal business at the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors' meeting Monday at El Gitano restaurant.

Chairman is Sam H. Winkleblack. He will be assisted by the following committee chairmen: Dinner, A. C. Argo; publicity, Kenneth L. Bowen; tickets, Clifton Woodhams, assisted by Carl E. Ward and Duncan Reynard, and reception, Carl E. Ward.

The board also named J. A. Buhler, Ward and William Werder to represent the chamber at the recreation project meeting called for Jan. 10 by Alfred (Red) Morton, recreation director.

Protests have been issued to seven major oil companies by the chamber concerning the price zone for gasoline, which permits the sale of gasoline at a half-cent less a gallon from Ruth Ave., Belmont, north. This has resulted, Secretary-Manager Roscoe D. Wyatt declared, in the purchase of gasoline outside of their own communities by commuters from Redwood City and Palo Alto.

Purchase of a trophy for the winning outdoor Christmas tree in the annual contest sponsored by the Lions' Club was authorized by the board. It also indorsed the Redwood City Eagles civilian fingerprinting campaign, and recommended to the city council for consideration the proposal to plant shrubs in the vicinity of the sites of the model homes to be constructed for the San Francisco Exposition Model Homes Tours.

Lepio Feliz, Native Of Portola, Passes

Lepio Feliz, who was born in Portola 67 years ago and had lived in this vicinity all his life, passed away Sunday. A retired carpenter, he resided on Nottingham Ave., Dumbarton Oaks.

He was a brother of Mrs. John Leahy and John, Maurice and Donald Feliz.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

On Friday morning the San Mateo County Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, presented a silk bear flag to the new court room in the Juvenile Home in Redwood City. The presentation was made by Grand President of the Order Mrs. Edna Briggs of Sacramento. Judge Cotton introduced the guests, which included Justice Edward I. McAuliffe, City Judge E. J. Ryan of Menlo Park, Chief J. J. Harper of Burlingame, Asst. Dist. Atty. Louis B. DeMatteis, Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch, and Probation Officer Francis Robinson. Floyd Granger of Redwood City presented a silk American flag on behalf of the American Legion. Native Daughters were present from Pescadero, Daly City, Menlo Park, Redwood City, Half Moon Bay and San Francisco.

Catherine Derry of Menlo Park is chairman of the Grand Parlor civic committee.

On Tuesday evening Menlo Parlor and San Bruno Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, were hosts to Grand President of the Order Mrs. Edna Briggs of Sacramento. With 100 members of the order present representing 11 parlors of the order, the ritual work was exemplified by officers picked from the two parlors. Ten members were initiated into Menlo Parlor. The halls were decorated with Christmas berries and greens.

Gifts were given the grand officers and the supervising and grand deputies. Seven grand officers were present among whom were Past Grand Presidents Evelyn Carlson, Anne Thuesen, Mae Hines Noonan, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Alice Oldham and Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Supervising Deputy Eleanor Foley and Deputy Martha Bernasque for Menlo Parlor and Marion Reid for San Bruno Parlor. Past Pres. Eleanor Ryan of Menlo Parlor was given her past president ring and Catherine Derry, the organizer of Menlo Parlor, was also presented with a gift.

The new Sons of the Legion Squadron held initiation last night in the American Legion Hall on Oak Grove Ave.

A joint turkey whist card party will be given by Menlo Park American Legion Post 443 and the Auxiliary unit on Friday, Dec. 16, in Central School Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Score cards are 35 cents.

Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary 443 will hold a whist party at the home of Mrs. Carroll A. Devol on Santa Cruz Ave. tonight at 8:15 p.m. Score cards, including refreshments, are 35 cents.

Lepio Feliz, who passed away near Redwood City recently, spent his boyhood in Menlo Park, where for years she was assistant to George Nunn in the care of the vast Hopkins estate, later learning the carpenter trade. He was a descendant of an old Spanish family, the pioneer members of which were connected with the Santa Clara and San Luis Obispo missions. One of his ancestors was in the Portola party which discovered San Francisco Bay in 1758. Feliz was a bachelor and was well known in the community. His parents died here many years ago.

The engagement of Miss Katherine Partee and August Dreier Jr. of San Francisco has been announced. The fair bride-to-be was born at Ravenswood, but spent a portion of her girlhood in Menlo Park. Miss Partee is an unusually pretty girl with a pleasing personality which has won her many friends on the Peninsula. She is a graduate of Sequoia High School and is a sister of Gordon Partee, the former noted fullback at St. Mary's College, and a niece of Mrs. C. M. Weeden of Menlo Park. The wedding will take place next month.

The recent rains and warm nights have produced a larger crop of mushrooms. Many basketsfull have been gathered on the fields adjoining the Sand Hill Rd.

Albert Wasson, a local mechanic residing on Glenwood Ave., is seriously ill with pneumonia. His doctor says there is an excellent chance of recovery.

The rainfall for the season to date is 3.10 inches. This time last year it was 4.42 inches. The lack of frost has been a boon to tomato men and orchardists who have been able to harvest their entire crop. Thus far no robins have made their appearance. All old timers consider this a bad omen for a wet winter. Plenty of robins mean abundant rains.

Port Board Urges Boat for Harbor

Support of the plan to establish a patrol boat service at the Redwood City Harbor, as a safety precaution for water mishaps, was given by the port commission Monday night as it referred the matter back to the city council for a definite proposal, Secretary-Manager Walter F. Murphy reported.

Whether the port would pay for such a facility, and just what sort of boat would be secured, was not decided at the meeting, pending further action by the city council, Murphy said. The proposal was made at the city council meeting Monday night and referred to the port commission for consideration.

One suggestion for operation of the patrol boat was to leave its use in the hands of the fire department, police department and harbor attendant.

Only routine business occupied the commission for the remainder of the session last night, Murphy declared. There was no shipping activity on tap for the port this week, he said.

Seal Sale Through Children Unauthorized

Sale of the tuberculosis association's Christmas Seals by children, reportedly being attempted here, not only is unauthorized but should be discouraged, according to officials of the San Mateo County Health and Tuberculosis Association, sponsor of the seal sale in this county.

Miss Ruth Close, executive secretary of the association, pointed out that the seals are sold entirely by mail here, and that any person not desiring to purchase them is privileged to return them in the envelope which was sent along with the request that they be bought.

"We are not permitted by our national association to use children to sell the seals," she explained, "and we would not want to exploit them if we could. Apparently some people are attempting to resell the seals, but this is not necessary. If a person to whom the seals were sent does not want to buy them, he may return them. In fact, we would rather have the seals returned, soon, if they are not to be purchased for we can then send them to someone else who will."

Doxsee Adds Protest To Health Inquiry

C. M. Doxsee of Redwood City, secretary of the 1937 grand jury, has questioned the value of the proposed United States Public Health Service survey of the county health department.

In a letter to the board of supervisors, he wrote: "I noticed in the Tribune a few days ago a movement to have the board of supervisors arrange for a national health survey of the county. I am not familiar with the merits of such a survey and do not know its need, but as a citizen and taxpayer of the county, I believe such a survey by the national government would not justify the expense."

During the past three years the United States has attracted over a billion dollars worth of gold yearly from abroad, largely due to unsettled conditions abroad.

Addition of small quantities of copper and manganese to some of the peat soils of the Florida everglades causes bountiful crops to grow on hitherto unproductive land.

E. E. Quayle Resigns As Tax League Head

MENLO PARK, Dec. 7—E. M. Rankin, director of the Southern San Mateo County Taxpayers League, today announced resignation of E. E. Quayle as chairman. Rankin said the possibility is being considered of appointing a temporary chairman for each meeting from the district in which the session is held.

LICENSE FEE IS PROVIDED FOR BICYCLES

Bicycle owners in Redwood City will pay a license fee of 50 cents beginning next year and in addition be required to observe definite rules for operation of their vehicles if an ordinance introduced at the city council meeting Monday night is finally adopted at the next meeting Dec. 19.

The ordinance, suggested by the Bicycle Safety Club, sponsored by the local Veterans of Foreign Wars, provides that the license be obtained from the police department, which will in turn issue a metallic license plate which is expected to go far toward elimination of thefts of bicycles in the city.

GOOD FOR LIFETIME

A license would be good for the life of the cycle unless it is sold, in which case a 25-cent transfer fee would be charged, whether the bicycle is sold by a dealer or an individual.

Rules of the ordinance for operation of bicycles include provisions that:

1. No more than one person shall ride a bicycle, unless that bicycle be "constructed for more than one person."

2. Riders of bicycles shall not "hold on to any other vehicle while the same is moving."

3. Bicycles shall not be ridden at night "without a light on the front and a reflector or light on the rear."

4. Bicycles may not be ridden on sidewalks.

The rules apply to all bicycles with a wheel diameter of 12 inches or more. Existing city laws provide that cyclists shall observe traffic laws applicable to motorists, such as the observance of speed limits and stop signals and the making of signals for turns and stops.

SALES REPORTS REQUIRED

The ordinance also provides that dealers shall make reports to the police department of all purchases and sales of bikes.

Penalty for violation of the law is fixed at a fine not to exceed $100 or a jail term not to exceed 50 days, or both.

The law will become effective 30 days after final passage, unless held up by a referendum.

Five Injured At San Mateo

Heavy fogs, particularly on the Coastside, made driving in San Mateo County over the week-end extremely hazardous but only a few accidents, none fatal, were reported.

The worst crash was on Bayshore Highway at Howard Ave., San Mateo, where five persons were hurt, three seriously, when two automobiles crashed headon.

Mrs. Mary Maloney Is Taken by Death

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Mary Maloney of Atherton, mother of Dep. Sheriff Thomas F. Maloney of Redwood City and Mrs. Edna O'Leary of Atherton, passed away Tuesday afternoon at the home of another son, William Maloney, in Oakland, where she had gone a week ago. Mrs. Lillian Sullivan of San Francisco is another daughter.

Mrs. Maloney, the widow of Cornelius Maloney, who passed away in 1911, had lived in Menlo Park from 1876 until five years ago, when she moved to Atherton to live with Mrs. O'Leary. Mrs. Maloney was born 84 years ago in Listole, County Kerry, Ireland.

Nine grandchildren survive Mrs. Maloney. They are Clinton Maloney and Robert and Jack O'Leary of Atherton; Mrs. Roberta Ingram and Miss Dorothy Day of Fairfax; Stanley Day of San Rafael; Mrs. Cornelia Smith of Landsdale; Mrs. Elna Williams of East Palo Alto, and Leo Sullivan of San Francisco.

Alarm clocks increased about 2,000,000 in the U. S. to top the 11,000,000 mark.

Chest Total Now $8400

Total amount of cash and pledges obtained for the Redwood City Community Chest has now reached nearly $8400. Chest Directorate President J. Elmer Morrish disclosed.

"And we still have many prospects to be heard from, including most of the oil companies," Morrish added.

He said that about two-thirds of the amount received was in cash.

Statements to those who had promised to pay by Dec. 1 soon are to be mailed by J. A. Buhler, secretary.

Ennis Estate Value Fixed at $845,444

Value of the Scott F. Ennis estate was placed at $845,444 by Bradford M. Melvin, appraiser, in a report filed in the superior court here. Ennis, who died Nov. 10, 1937, of traffic crash injuries, lived in Burlingame. He was president of the Pacific Fruit Exchange and past potentate of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The bulk of the estate, after $21,000 in specific bequests, was left in trust for his widow, Ann H. Ennis, and his three children, Mildred, Susanne, and Scott Jr. He cut off his stepson, Gilbert C. Richards.

Included in the estate was $118,940 in stock of the Sutter Investment Co., and approximately $277,000 worth of real estate in San Mateo, San Francisco, Sutter, Placer and Sacramento Counties.

Van Gundy To Head R. C. Exchange Club

Kenneth W. Van Gundy of 163 Iris St., sales supervisor for the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., was elected president of the Redwood City Exchange Club at the annual election Tuesday night when the service organization met at Cafe de Paris. Van Gundy succeeds J. A. Buhler, who has served this year.

Named first vice president to succeed Van Gundy was Kenneth L. Bowen. Other officers selected were Dr. Rolio O. La Berge, second vice president, succeeding Bowen; Ray Spangler, third vice president; Albert Terremere, secretary, succeeding Dr. La Berge; John J. Garland, treasurer, a post he had filled this year, and Ernest R. Hoffman, Gerald V. Shields and C. L. Stokes, members of the board of control, to serve with Leo E. Fuller and T. N. Thompson, holdover members.

The new officers will be installed at a ceremony to be held January.

Yomecan 'Y' Club Presented Charter

Presenting the club charter to the group, Thomas Badley, YMCA secretary, was guest speaker Monday night at the meeting of the Yomecan "Y" Club in the clubroom at the parish house of St. Peter's Episcopal Church. An exhibition of craft work by the members of the club was on display.

The Yomecan Club will direct the YMCA distribution of Christmas baskets this year. A central depot for collection of contributions will be open every Saturday until Christmas at 2021 Broadway. Any one wishing to donate food may telephone Norbert Lambert, 126, or Badley, 2690-W.

Fletcher To Head Insurance Group

Evans A. Fletcher, Redwood City councilman, Tuesday night was elevated to the presidency of the Redwood City Insurance Agents Association, succeeding L. E. Werder.

George Boring was named vice president succeeding Fletcher and Teddy Lauman and Charles G. Lambert were re-elected secretary and treasurer, respectively, at the annual election. Three new members, Frank A. De Patta, William M. Werder and Harry Hoefler, were received into the association at the meeting held in Sequoia Hotel and attended by 33 members and guests.

Entertainment was provided by a musical group including Mrs. Clarissa Bray, Hal Honore', Lambert and De Patta.

47 Now Employed On City Projects

City building projects were employing 47 workers today, it was reported by city hall officials, as they totaled the payroll lists for the new city hall construction, library and port addition jobs.

In addition to the 18 men working at the port on the wharf addition and new warehouse, there were 14 employed on the library and 15 on the city hall, according to W. E. Bamberger, construction supervisor on the two latter jobs. Work on the contracts was proceeding according to schedule, City Manager Charles L. Dimmitt reported.

First of City's Lots Nearly Ready for Sale

Repossessed Parcels To Be Advertised; Bids Sought

The first 81 of the building lots which the City of Redwood City has repossessed for delinquent taxes and bond defaults should be ready for public sale within about five weeks, it was reported at the meeting of the city council Monday night.

At that time, bids on the lots will be received, it was explained. The bids will have to be for an amount at least equal to minimum prices to be fixed by the council when deeds are received from the state, expected in about a fortnight. After the state's deeds are obtained, the lots must be advertised for three weeks.

Councilman Paul A. McCarthy, a member of the committee working on the problem, explained that he and Mayor Louis C. Christensen and Manager C. L. Dimmitt, other members of the committee, were submitting recommendations for minimum prices based on four factors: Assessed valuation, total amount of delinquencies and penalties, appraisals made by realtors, and personal inspection of the parcels.

APPROVAL NEEDED

The minimum amounts, not yet disclosed, must be approved by the council as a whole. Bids then must equal or exceed the amounts, else the lots will be retained by the city until higher offers are received.

Possibility that some discount on the lots will be made if the buyers immediately build on them was seen when Councilmen Evans A. Fletcher and Harold F. Anderson both expressed themselves as being in favor of such a policy. No action was taken, however.

It had at first been expected a year ago that the lots could have been sold long before this, but legal requirements which had not been anticipated delayed the disposition of the properties.

MORATORIUM OPPOSED

Even now, Councilman McCarthy pointed out, there is some question as to whether the remainder of the several hundred lots repossessed can be sold for some time because of the state moratorium on taxes. He recommended that the council go on record as being opposed to any further extension by the legislature of the moratorium when it expires next February. The council voted unanimously to authorize McCarthy to prepare a resolution so stating the council's opinion, to be presented at the Dec. 19 meeting.

The entire matter of the lots was brought up when Charles Holt, local real estate dealer, inquired about status of the repossessed property.
